

Homes Selling Quickly in Highgrove at Anderson Creek

With heavily wooded, private homesites, a location just 10 minutes from Fort Bragg, shopping close by and new schools within walking distance, it's no wonder that people are eager to live in Highgrove at Anderson Creek.

The 300-lot Highgrove neighborhood features gorgeous homesites ranging in size from $\frac{1}{4}$ acre to $\frac{3}{4}$ acre and offer both seclusion and convenience. The community is located just off a main thoroughfare - Ray Road – so you're close to everything including shopping and grocery stores, yet the neighborhood is set back to maximize your privacy. And, families love the fact that there are three new schools – an elementary, middle and high school – just $\frac{1}{4}$ mile away.

Floor plans range in size from 2,312 to 3,215 square feet for a three, four or five bedroom home, and home buyers can choose from Americana, Craftsman and European-styled homes that feature low-maintenance vinyl exteriors. All bedrooms feature vaulted, tray ceilings, and many plans offer elegant two-story great rooms and coffered ceilings in the dining room to enhance the spacious feeling of the homes.

Directions to Highgrove at Anderson Creek: From Spring Lake, take 87N, and drive approximately six miles. Turn right on Nursery Rd. At caution light, turn right and drive about 1.5 miles. Highgrove at Anderson Creek will be on the right.

For more information, call 910.263.6093.